Catholic Official Denounces Motion and Says Issue is Purely Political

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—An appeal to Pope Pius XI for moral support of "civil authority" in the United States was made public today by the United Committee on Prohibition Enforcement, made of a number of Catholic and Protestant reform organizations.

In a letter to the Vatican the chairman of the committee, Christopher M. Flanagan, referred both to the Ku Klux Klan and the Ku Klux Klan, and the appeal had been "authorized and approved" by the committee, which requested that the Pope issue a communiqué directly appealing to President Coolidge for better prohibition enforcement.

SHARP REJOINDER
A letter tonight brought a sharp rejoinder from Rev. John J. Burke, general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The conference comprises all of the Catholic bishops in the United States.

The Democratic leader, in calling for a far more drastic change than the national defense organization then proposed by the board, was in accord with several Senators and Representatives who are urging a unified air service, either through creation of a department of national defense in which land, sea and air activities would be given co-equal status, or through establishing a separate department of aviation.

Several bills dealing with the situation are being prepared for introduction during the first week of Congress. In the Senate Chairman Wadsworth of the Military Committee will sponsor a measure dealing with the board's provisions for the Army Air Service; Chairman Hale of the Naval Committee, a bill to carry recommendations dealing with the Air Service; Chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, a similar bill will be introduced in the House by Chairman Parker.

BUKWASH (Sussex, Eng.) Dec. 4.—Satisfactory improvement in the condition of Rudyard Kipling, who is suffering from double pneumonia at his retreat here, continued throughout the day. The author is not suffering pain and is conscious.

His strong constitution is believed to be withstanding the disease as well as can be expected.

Messages from all parts of the world have reached this little village since the illness of Kipling.

Kings George has requested that he be kept in constant touch with the condition of the patient.

Baldwin, the British Prime Minister, who is a cousin of Kipling, has made a similar request.

SOVIET TO PUT CURB ON VODKA

Many Deaths Reported to be Caused by Drinking of High-Power Liquor

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
MOSCOW, Dec. 4.—Disorders arising from vodka drinking have become so prevalent that the government has found it necessary to form a special commission to draft measures for dealing with drunkenness.

It has taken steps to limit the number of liquor stores in the neighborhood of factories and to restrict the sale of vodka on days when there are 12 hours of darkness.

Twenty deaths are said to have resulted from the introduction of the new 40 per cent vodka. Delirium tremens, therefore, is widespread in Russia, it is declared to be fairly prevalent.

NEEDERLAND (Colo.) Dec. 4.—William Lane, who left the Fairview Mining Company's mine after having to stay over night, was rescued from the tunnel in a serious condition.

Twenty men were entombed in the mine following a fire early yesterday, but one of them, Walter Swanson of Denver, was brought out alive last night.

Lane was not in the Fairview mine today because he had gone outside to find drill bits which he had lost.

William Bryant, another miner, was working at the mouth of the mine when the fire started. He tried to fight the blaze and severely burned his hands and face. His clothing caught fire and fellow-workmen tripped him into a snowbank and extinguished the flames.

PARIS, Dec. 4.—The Senate late tonight adopted the government's measure calling for financial inflation and increased taxation, 205 votes to 26. As the Senate made no modifications in the bill as adopted by the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, it now becomes law.

The act calls for inflation of the currency by 7,500,000 francs and fresh taxation of from 20 to 100 per cent. The bill yesterday successfully weathered the storm in the Chamber of Deputies, and last night it was taken up by the Finance Committee of the Senate, which accepted it in full and recommended that the Senate take favorable action upon it.

After a sleepless night and day, M. Briand appeared before the Finance Commission and issued an ultimatum similar to that given by him in the Chamber of Deputies Wednesday evening, in effect, that if the bill was not adopted as it stood, "no government was possible."

Previously, in committee, numerous modifications to the bill had been discussed and inserted in it, but when the Premier had spoken, the members of the committee yielded.

The upper chamber began discussion of it this afternoon.

With passage by the Senate M. Briand's troubles by no means are over. Next week he will have to defend in the Chamber of Deputies his financial reform plan which will bear heavily on the treasury.

GENEVA, Dec. 4.—Both the United States and Russia will be invited to participate in the preparatory work for the proposed conference to bring about world disarmament if the Council of the League of Nations approves measures agreed upon today by the Council No. 2, especially appointed by the League to treat with disarmament problems. Although no official announcement concerning the measure was made, the Associated Press was informed tonight that members of the disarmament council agreed that no international conference to reduce armament burdens could hope to succeed without the collaboration of both the United States and Russia.

The necessity of having the cooperation of Russia in disarmament moves became evident at the conference for the control of traffic in arms, when the countries bordering on Russia withheld final approval of the convention until such time as Russia would adhere to the document.

EXPLANATION GIVEN

An official communiqué explains that a new commission for the preparation of the disarmament conference will have as members those countries holding seats in the Council in addition to "Russia," which sits in a special position as regards disarmament.

Moreover, any State not represented shall be entitled to send in memoranda and the commission would be entitled to ask any state to do so, and given question to furnish information concerning its own viewpoint.

Commenting on the discussions, M. Boncœur of France, as president of the council, emphasized that the new commission will be composed of the permanent commission for the disarmament conference.

It is understood that the announcement concerning the United States and Russia is to be withheld until invitations are addressed to them to be composed, that for Russia being the plebiscite ordered by President Coolidge as arbiter.

The commission, according to the communiqué, will consist of nine members, each representing a different country.

It is not only absolutely necessary that such proposals or suggestions have been made, but our (the Peruvian) government is resolved to accept them.

The actual situation permits a settlement that it had been proposed.

RHINELANDER VERDICT GIVEN

Jurors Hand Sealed Paper to Clerk and Go Home

Judge to Open Findings in Suit Early Today

Annulment Hearing Ended at Noon Yesterday

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Dec. 4.—The jury hearing the suit brought by Leonard Kip Rhinelander for annulment of his marriage to his negro wife, handed a sealed verdict to the court clerk at 11:30 tonight and then went home.

The verdict will be opened by Judge Morrschauer at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—After deliberating since shortly before noon with but a single interruption to clear up a bit of debatable testimony, the jury in the suit to determine whether Leonard Kip Rhinelander's marriage to his part-negro bride, Alice Beatrice Jones Rhinelander, is to be annulled, was locked up until the night.

Justice Morrschauer directed that the verdict if reached tonight be sealed. He will convene court at 10 o'clock tomorrow to receive the sealed paper and report the jury if it still has been unable to agree.

The jury returned to the courtroom during the afternoon to get a transcript of the testimony of Harry Reynolds, a newspaper woman, who interviewed Alice soon after her marriage to Kip.

CASES FLURRY

This testimony had to do with Rhinelander's knowledge that he had married a negro woman. It was offered by the defense as evidence of his efforts to show that Rhinelander knew that Alice Beatrice Jones had colored blood at an earlier time than he admitted.

The jury's return created a flurry of activity in the courtroom before it was realized that it merely sought further information.

The defense sought to prove by Mrs. Reynolds' testimony that Rhinelander knew of his wife's case several days at least before he left her.

Justice Morrschauer addressed the jury for an hour and a half, and again adjourned the hearing of evidence in reaching a verdict.

Deliberation, passion and prejudice or any other influence should not interfere with an honest determination, he said. "An honest and courageous determination upon the evidence is requested of you by your oath."

JURY CAUTIONED

Justice Morrschauer cautioned the jury that it must consider the opportunities of Leonard Rhinelander before his marriage of determining his fitness for intelligence.

"If the plaintiff had the available means of ascertaining the truth by the exercise of ordinary intelligence, he said, "then he was bound to use such means. If you find he had the means of discovering the truth and it was apparent the defendant was not of white blood, he cannot have to say he did not know she was of colored blood and was defrauded thereby."

He pointed out, too, that the burden of proof is upon Mr. Rhinelander.

"Fraud involves moral turpitude," he said, "and in this case fraud will not be presumed. In the ordinary transactions of life, fairness and honesty are presumed."

As the jurors went to their room Alton was heard to say, despairingly:

"Just to think, they made me seven years older than he is."

"Not much honey," crooned her sister, Emily Brooks, "it's a lie, it's a lie."

FAMOUS GRASS FIGHT IN TEXAS RECALLED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Dec. 4.—Many of the stirring events of the pre-revolutionary days of 1855, including the famous grass fight that occurred ninety years ago will be reviewed at a meeting of the Texas Historical Landmarks Association, in a luncheon session.

The famous grass fight took its name from the pack train which Mexicans had loaded on a mule pack train, and which Deaf Smith, noted Texas scout, thought were the Mexican soldiers.

At the defense, the representation regarding her color with the intent to induce the plaintiff to enter marriage without which he would not have married him, was warrant in finding fraud," he asserted, "and this applies to silence or concealment, as well as to direct misrepresentation."

As the jurors went to their room Alton was heard to say, despairingly:

"Just to think, they made me seven years older than he is."

OLD COAST NEWSPAPER CELEBRATES

Portland "Oregonian" Has Fete in Commemoration of Seventy-fifth Birthday

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 4.—The Oregonian, oldest metropolitan newspaper west of the Rocky Mountains, celebrated its seventy-fifth birthday anniversary today. It has been printed continuously since its founding Dec. 4, 1850, first as a weekly and, since Feb. 4, 1861, as a daily.

For its jubilee the Oregonian conducted a celebration to which invited its friends of many years.

Fifteen hundred guests attended a dinner in the public auditorium, the company comprising members of the Oregon Pioneers' Association and Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers as well as some 100 persons who had been subscribers to the Oregonian for more than fifteen years. At other tables sat the employees of all departments of the Oregonian, between 400 and 500 in number. The event started with an informal pioneer reunion in the music room. Following a special showing of the film "The Covered Wagon," depicting events that had been experienced in kind by hundreds of those present.

The formal program included an address by Fred S. Morris, head of the history department of the University of Washington, a distinguished educator who reviewed some of the interesting phases of pioneer life and paid a tribute to the man who founded the paper.

"The plaintiff had the available means of ascertaining the truth by the exercise of ordinary intelligence," he said, "then he was bound to use such means. If you find he had the means of discovering the truth and it was apparent the defendant was not of white blood, he cannot have to say he did not know she was of colored blood and was defrauded thereby."

Among various proposals to be presented to Congress, outright repeal of the Volstead Act will be sought by Representative Dyer Moore, ranking Republican of the House Judiciary Committee and one of the wet leaders, who heretofore had contended merely for modification of the law.

WEIGHT STRIKES BABY

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—"You can't learn too soon," said A. Cameseo of Manteca to his son, 2 years of age, as he began to jingle a heavy weight around his head. The young one applied itself in another way, for suddenly the weight toppled, fell and struck the baby on the head. Dr. L. E. Tretheway was summoned and twelve stitches were necessary to close the wound.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

WINNIPEG, Dec. 4.—The Canadian motor highway now in course of construction between Halifax and Vancouver will be lined throughout with trees and will become one veritable natural arcade. This announcement was made publicly by Dr. P. E. Doolittle, president of the Canadian Automobile Association, who said that the Canadian government had agreed to finance the road, while he himself, had promised to raise $1,000,000 to carry out the scheme.

SHIMMER TRADED FOR SHIVER

BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS

PARIS, Dec. 4.—Paris, which sponsored the nude silk stockings, the presence of which was betrayed by a mere shimmer, now has eliminated the shimmer. Sheer lace is the latest craze, and in shades matching exactly the complexion of the wearer. Women now buy thin stockings to match the face powder and in the new mode there is as little shine to the stockings as there is to the well-powdered nose. During the recent winter blizzard, Paris enjoyed the spectacle of fur coats a la winter time and apparently bare nether extremities a la summer time.

COSGRAVE HAILS NEW IRISH PACT

Boundary Settlement Held to Presage Peace Era

Old Animosities Expected to be Submerged

Ulster and Free State Press Alike Show Pleasure

BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS

DUBLIN, Dec. 4.—William T. Cosgrave, President of the Free State Executive Council, in a statement to the Associated Press regarding the Irish boundary settlement today declared:

"I am firmly convinced that the agreement signed yesterday by the Free State, Ulster and Great Britain marks a definite turning point in the checkered history of Ireland."

"The agreement completes and perfects the treaty signed December 11th. For the right leader and technical machinery of that treaty it substitutes a spirit of neighborly comradeship and cooperation under the influence of the old traditions. The animosities between ancient understandings will perish in the vision of a proud, prosperous and self-reliant Ireland."

HOPES FOR NEW SPIRIT

"It will not be legal until that new and heartening spirit breaks down the barriers of class and caste in every part of Ireland and enables the people to play their full part in shaping the destinies of the entire country."

"Ireland's need today is the need of the world—mutual forbearance and understanding, especially strong toward the east, in which the errors and misunderstandings of the past will not be allowed to close the wheels of the future."

"Henceforth the relations of the North and the South will be those of Irishmen who, in their different spheres, are working in harmony for the common good of the country."

"The British government has made generous contributions in the confident belief that settlement of all outstanding matters of mutual controversy will guarantee peace and understanding alike to the Irish government and their peoples."

"The newspapers of all shades of opinion in Dublin and Cork have complete control over the boundary settlement to-day, which they regard as the best obtainable under the circumstances."

PLAN WELCOMED

The Irish Times especially welcomes the provisions for future cooperation between the North and South, and suggests that each immediately adopts a single commission to the other's capital.

The Irish Independent thinks that intercourse between the two sections may pass the way to submission.

When the Free State discharged her obligations to the British she will be in the unique position of having a national debt much less than $60,000,000.

Interviews with Deputies indicate that opposition will be offered to the settlement in Dublin and Cork on their grounds, yet it is submitted that more money may be paid for a vague liability; second, it fixes partition; third, it abolishes the Council of Ireland, which was the only sign of unity which the Anglo-Irish had.

The ministerial party in the Dail Eirann is unanimous in its support of the London boundary agreement. It was stated officially that the close of a meeting of party members today.

PROGRESS BEING MADE WITH EXCHEQUER DAM

TEN MILES OF RAILROAD RELOCATED AND NEARLY ALL EXCAVATION COMPLETED

EXCLUSIVELY DISPATCH

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—Remarkable progress has been made by the Merced Irrigation District in the excavation of the Exchequer dam and powerhouse and in re-locating seventeen miles of the Yosemite Valley Railroad, which now passes over the reservoir site. The dam is 75 per cent complete and the powerhouse and powerhouse are expected to be completed by next February. Ten miles of the relocated railroad have been laid and one-half per cent of the excavation work on the roadway and embankment of the line remains to be done. Bridge and tunnel work for the railroad are well advanced.

Work on the dam is far ahead of schedule. Last week 16,000 yards of concrete have been poured and only 60,000 more yards will complete the work. Openings for passage of the winter snowmelt are almost closed about March 15 and the railroad placed in operation.

Construction of the powerhouse is also ahead of schedule.

During the last month during the period referred to the dam of the Gila River had been allowed to pass through the dam until demonstration had been made of the fact that all the water pressure was gone from the dam. The water was absorbed by the thirsty sands of the river bed before it reached the defendant. This loss was ascertained to have been $65,000.

The defendant, who is operating the Gila Water Company, is also responsible for the damage to the dam. The dam was built to withstand the force of the Gila River, but the water pressure was so great that it was unable to withstand the force of the Gila River.

Turns Against Impeachment of "Ma"
Grand Rallies Friends to Family Banner

Popular Appeal to Distract Public

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
WICHITA (Kan.), Dec. 4.—Things look brighter today, for Gov. "Ma" Ferguson, of Texas. Despite the up of charges against their administration, they are acting more confident. Behind the scenes politics are at a standstill, and the anti-Ferguson group is beginning to realize that the Senate will not quite pull life and a bitter struggle.

Gov. Jimmie, who was impeached and removed as Governor of Texas in 1915, is putting all the fight of his life to save the same fate. He is using all his political skill to win over to his side the Senate and, having a steady stream of legislators and county going into his office.

ORGANIZATION FEINT

The result is that a reaction in the segment seems to be set off. Not in favor of the Ferguson, outside of the Senate camp, no one is to be seen. The report of the committee on economic theory of highway improvement informed the 5th annual conference of the highway research board of the National Research Council, meeting here in a two-day session at the National Academy of Sciences.

Various other reports on different road problems have been presented to the conference, in which some 200 highway engineers from forty-four States are participating.

MINING EDITOR QUILTS POSITION AT EL PASO

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
EL PASO (Tex.), Dec. 4.—After forty-four years of newspaper work, Judge Lew Davis, the veteran mining editor of the old El Paso Times has retired from the newspaper. He left with the editor of the El Paso Herald. Judge Davis, a graduate of the University of Michigan law class of 1881, came here the same year and worked for the newspaper, mining articles to the old Times when it was published down in Chinatown on South Congress street. Except for the time he was county judge he has been active in newspaper work since, devoting his attention to the mining situation.

PROSECUTOR CHARGES

If the impeachment proceedings are carried through to a finish, it will be something new in that the impeachment is to be the work of the People. Ferguson has given himself a resounding victory by his administration has failed to prevent the public from waste of thousands of dollars.

Those who argue that "Jim" is a scoundrel from the Capitol, and who have, however, have not put forward any program to reconcile him with his own friends in government, appears to be in the minority.

NEW ARIZONA MISSION DEDICATED BY BISHOP

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
TUCSON (Ariz.), Dec. 4.—The ancient mission of San Xavier, south of Tucson, has been the center of the annual feast of the patron saint, with religious observances, a procession of much of the membership of the Pima tribe and feasting and merriment. Bishop Daniel W. Gercke presided at high mass, assisted by a half dozen priests. The bishop also has been active in newspaper work since, devoting his attention to the mining situation.

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—The city claims the honor of producing one of the young sculptors of the day. Edgar Tauch, formerly of Yonkers, but now living in San Francisco, Calif., has some of his works exhibited at the San Francisco Art Association exhibit. He has achieved this distinction at 25 years of age. Tauch studied under Ernest Cerradello of Houston, Tex., before going to California. He began to model things from clay when he was a youngster, and took up the serious study of sculpture when he became older.

COOKING OF COFFEE LEADS TO SHOOTING

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

STOCKTON, Dec. 4.—In a row over the use of a stove and the right to brew coffee, a man named Castro is asserted to have shot Peter Matin. The row occurred on the Jacob Fauch auto camp grounds at Lodi and Castro is said to have been angry after the latter had chased him with an ax. Both men are fruit workers.

Imperial Valley's Midwinter Fair Revelation to Visitors

A PROFUSION of fresh fruit and vegetable products such as probably never before has been assembled in any community at this season of the year, is on exhibition at the annual Imperial midwinter fair at Brawley—a better fair than the Imperial Valley has ever previously seen. What is termed as a remarkable showing of thoroughbred live-stock and poultry is also on exhibit. The midwinter fair which started a number of years ago at the back end of a Brawley feed store has expanded to the extent that growers and breeders from all over the State include it in their itineraries. Some of the principal exhibits are pictured below.

Ambassador Points Out
Objection to Clauses

MY JACK STARR-HUNT
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 4.—The atmosphere in the minds of Americans, in fact all foreign residents in Mexico, is one of apprehension regarding American negotiations with the Mexican Foreign Office. At these it is understood that the Ambassador is under pressure to resume diplomatic relations with Mexico in accordance with the provisions of the United States law considered here retroactive regarding American property holdings in Mexico as far back as prior to the Mexican revolution, which affected the principal clauses of the original agreement.

The two countries agreed to resume diplomatic relations in the summer of 1923.

The primary object of the recognition conference between Foreign Minister Rosario and John P. Tamm, the Mexican ambassador, was to establish an understanding upon the question of the interpretation and application of Article 27 of the Mexican constitution, which to the United States government to determine its policy regarding resuming of relations with Mexico.

SUBMIT DOCUMENT

At the first meeting of the commission, Messrs. Warren and Payne, representing the United States, and Mr. Jose and Fernando Gomez, representing Mexico, in a letter under authority of the Mexican Foreign Office, submitted a written document called "Memorandum of May 11." It contained a summary of various decisions by Alvaro Obregon, then president of the Republic, and by General Plutarco Elias Calles, then Minister of the Legionary Department, the Mexican Congress, and the Judicial Department, the Mexican Supreme Court, according to interpretation which would be placed on the meaning and construction of Article 27.

After a study of this document, Warren read a number of paragraphs from the Mexican document, among them one quoted President Obregon as follows: "All titles of private property, acquired prior to May 1, 1911, will remain intact and protected. Simplicity was considered in a statement by the Mexican Charge d'Affaires, Mr. T. Summerlin.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

MEMPHIS, Dec. 4.—Jack Beneke, graduate manager of athletes, who is interested in the responsibility to select an eleven for Washington, the Pacific Coast Conference champion, in the Tournament of Roses international game at Pasadena, Cal., New Year's Day arrived in town yesterday and held a conference with C. D. Shaughnessy, coach of the Aggies. At a time when looked brightest for the title was received from New Orleans university that would not be mentioned.

Then got into communication with Wallace Wade, football coach of Alabama. Conference had been received from the Southern Conference and Pittsburgh left. It is understood something definite will be known tomorrow, according to Beneke, who accepted the opportunity to meet Wade.

He objects to meeting Wade.

Wade, however, was invited to the game by the Aggies.

It is understood that he will accept the invitation.

Southern California Conference Basketball Teams Enter Training Grind for Season

FANS TURN TO CASABA SPORT

Many Grid Stars Seek Fame at Basketball

Capt. Neil Archer is Lost to Occidental

Hard-Fought Season Looms as Teams Improve

With the post mortem over the passing of the football season hardly over, the fickle fans are already casting rapturous glances toward the fast-flying basketball season.

In the Southern California Conference, with every school in the league scheduling practice games for the coming week, the rumors are flying fast and thick.

Fomona, Occidental and Southern Branch have stepped off to a flying start if everything runs true to form some of the fastest games of the season will be furnished between the schools. Whittier, Redlands and Cal also have all to answer for, but they are very much in the running for the Southern Conference title, which should mean action a plenty for the blood-thirsty court fans.

GRID STARS OUT

Grid practice started immediately after the football season was completed and many of the stars of the tankard will be seen on the basketball terrains. Harold Merritt and Jack Manildi, the Sagamen backfielders, are out on the court and look good for varsity grid. They will be paired with last year's freshman squad. Coach Oak Smith at Occidental has the making of a good squad this year, with Billie Miskin, Harry Goss, three stars of the football championship squad out for pluses. Southern Branch also boasts of many shining grid lights in Back, Guard, Linebacker, Trained and a host of others.

Occidental last year finished in second place and was the only quintet to defeat the Branch. This year, however, it is not only in, but the stand should have plenty of fight. Last year's forward combination of Captain Neil Archer and Solly Miskin were one of the best in the school; this year, however, the team is lost. Archer is in the hospital with a bad sprain and his replacement, Eddie Goss, has left a big hole. The boys played basketball together for several years. Gregory and Miskin will probably be the ones to forward. Howard Black is an excellent prospect for the center job. Heslinne, Godett and Wheeler are prospects for the guard positions.

Mainland's forward, Captain, failed to turn out a man capable of holding down a varsity position so Smith can not look in that direction for new blood.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Fomona's prospects this year are bright, as far as the men with Mervin Manildi, Nehru Hemalalashach, Munson, Maisch, Arehband and Rau are out for practice. Hehew and Hemalalashach were sub-wards on last year's squad. The branch will play their first practice game on the 8th inst. when they clash with the Fomona. Y.M.C.A. Five, La Verne, will furnish the competition on the 15th. Mainland has been scheduled with Stanford for the 8th of January and the conference season will open on January 15th with a game against Redlands.

With a host of veteran material another good court season is anticipated at Whittier. "Clem" Keeces playing his third year at guard, while Captain of his year, "Chill" Eeckes, a fine forward and captain for two years is playing his last year of basketball. Bob Danner, referee, and the Dannerettes, are sure of their positions. Jerry Marshall will be seen at center. All of the men are lettermen besides a fine turnout of last year's fresh team.

GRIZZLIES GOOD

Southern Branch last year's champion with seven lettermen back and a host of new material in the form of freshmen looks forward to another title. Twenty-five players are working out daily under Coach Caddy Works. So far no outside practice games have been played, but several are tap within the next two weeks. This year's Branch schedule will furnish the Grizzlies with plenty of tough competition before the season opens. The Oregon Aggies, Montana Aggies and Stanford will be met on the court, as well as Cal.

Little has been heard from Caltech or Redlands, but both schools usually turn out good squads. With several veterans back, the Branch looks good to furnish several upsets in the conference.

LEAGUE OF NATION CARD FOR CULVER

With seven high class bouts all officially sanctioned by the State Athletic Commission, lined up Matchmaker Sy Saenz of the Culver City Stadium is under the weather in the first card under the new system next Tuesday evening at the stadium.

Eleven countries of the world will be represented in the card next Tuesday evening. Bobbie La Salle and Lynch will battle the main event.

Following is the entire entry:

U.S. men: Sam Rodriguez, unattached; Rusty Ross, L.A.C.; Robert Thomas, Penn; Billie Valentine, Club; George Adams, Los Angeles; Charlie Johnson, Club; Manuel Trevino, Hollywood; A.C.; Ormond Gandy, Hollywood; A.C.; Eddie Moore, Penn.

BOYST WAIVER PRICE
The waiver price in the major leagues has been increased to $4000.

BOYER KNOCKED OUT TWICE AT SAME HOUR; BADLY CUT

Kenny Boyer, all-American forward and captain of the Trojan basketball quintet, is a great basketball player, but he carries instructions too far, according to Coach Les Turner. Among other important things, the major has been drumming the subject of "liming" into his charges as one of the most important elements of the game.

Then, too, he has been telling his squad to think him a complete knockout on two different days and at exactly 8:35 on each occasion.

INDEX OF TRADE IDEA EXPLODED

Present Stock Market Held Poor Barometer

Expert Says Business Future Overdiscounted

For Out of Proportion to Expected Increase

PAUL WILLARD GARRETT (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Over a period, the stock market is considered a barometer of business conditions, but not every one has agreed, apparently, that a protracted period of optimism is reflected in the market at the same time that the underlying conditions are another period, more or less, bullish on stocks and bearish on the business outlook.

As editors go through their pile of editorials for the annual review, it is evident that the market may be improved by the bias of optimistic predictions for 1926.

That the market is not in a position to sustain that optimism is not conceivable to suppose that improvement in conditions is to be proportionate to the recent rise in the stock market?

STOCKS GAIN FASTER

Most people would agree that either business improvement or help to stimulate it is reflected in the market. The question is, to what extent?

Mr. Lewis H. Flanary, director of the New York University of Business, has issued a statement in the current issue of the Bank Journal, to cite on the subject.

Flanary finds that allowing for normal growth and assuming no new legislation, the market is not more than 10 per cent above the depression levels of 1921, whereas securities are at least 90 per cent higher, eliminating the railroads, securities are at least 120 per cent higher.

There are two reasons why stocks moved forward, in Flanary's opinion. First, the improvement in business, but it is equally certain that the amount of recent rise was far out of proportion to the actual increase in business.

While Mr. Flanary does not say it is possible that he also has a situation that in more recent months the market has advanced in spite of the present decline and which, like the recent advance in selected stocks, would tend to minimize for the moment the value of the stock market.

But the motor shares, for example, have disclosed a more solid basis for the motor industry than the earlier shares for the time being.

We must turn to readjustments in terms of stocks in different industries.

Business improvement has been steady and widespread; in fact, stocks have been discounted a minimum of 10 per cent.

It is probable that, if the market continues to move upward orderly and in the direction of the spectacular performance of the stock market during the last few years, we are not likely to see any real depression.

But the era of depression, if any, will be short, and probably in a few months will re- duce advances in other stocks.

DOMESTIC

After a year of flatness, the market is again showing signs of recovery.

This Is the Big Day! Santa Claus Will Drive His Reindeer Down Broadway at 10 A. M.!

Today is the big day of days for Los Angeles boys and girls—the day when Santa Claus will arrive in the city and drive his team of reindeer on the downtown streets. Santa and his reindeer will arrive in front of The Times Building, First and Broadway, at 10 o'clock this morning. A telegram he sent The Times last night assured us of this fact. His reindeer are keeping up the fast pace they set when they started down here from the Far North. They will arrive here on schedule time.

Thousands of boys and girls of Los Angeles—and grown-ups, too—have planned to be on hand to see the reindeer. They will be the first real, live reindeer ever seen in this part of the country. And these are Santa's own reindeer—Prancer and Dancer and Dunder and Blitzen and Dasher and Vixen.

Ook Wat, the intrepid Eskimo who carried to Santa Claus the invitation from The Times to come to Los Angeles, will be on hand, too. He is bringing with him five of his Eskimo friends to help care for the reindeer, and all will be in their Eskimo suits and boots.

In order that as many persons as possible may see the reindeer, Santa will drive them from The Times Building down Broadway to Ninth street. He will turn west on Ninth street to Hill and then go to a point between Ninth and Tenth street.

This will be the first and best opportunity for the children to see the wonderful team of reindeer. It is their first daylight visit here, and, of course, there is no telling when they will come again. Nobody knows yet how long Santa can stay or where the deer will be after today. Watch The Times, but be sure to be on Broadway at 10 o'clock this morning!

Bombshell Dropped in Official Circles by Keyes-Richardson Row in Prison Parole Case

GRAND JURY FOREMAN IS NEUTRAL IN PAROLE CASE

Declares No Reason Apparent for Use of Private Investigators; Women Back Governor

and has received no reply to his offer of date.

The Hall of Records and other centers of political and official activities were buzzing with speculations and discussions of the legal phase presented by the Governor's broadside against Mr. Keyes. In section 225 of the Penal Code, some of the officials held, the District Attorney may be present in the grand-jury room and may interrogate witnesses whenever he thinks it necessary. Mr. Keyes, it was pointed out, can issue a subpoena for the Governor to appear before the grand jury.

Up to a late hour yesterday attorneys on both sides subpoenaed no such subpoena was issued.

Those who conferred with Mr. Keyes said he indicated he will bow to the wishes of the grand jury if the members they may choose to pursue will not interfere in any way with the investigation which he also sake in his statement.

WOMEN OFFER AID

The sensation created by the Governor's reference to Mr. Keyes was followed by the appearance in the executive offices of a committee of clubwomen, who appeared as individuals to command the Governor on his action in reviewing the "Big Hutch" case.

This committee was composed of Mrs. Charles F. Gray, Mrs. E. C. Macauran, Mrs. Myrtle Matthers and Mrs. Allie Simmons Wheeler. They conferred with the Governor for a few minutes and left apparently well pleased with the interview. Before leaving the outer offices Mrs. Gray said:

"The Governor told us Mr. Keyes asked him to review the case but when we came to him Mr. Keyes asked him to revoke the parole of 'Big Hutch.'

The other committee of women was headed by Mrs. Lillian Pascal Day, president of the public information League. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Norris, widow of John E. Norris, the victim of "Big Hutch."

RICHARDSON UNDECIDED ON JUSTICE

Will Confer With Myers on Supreme Court Post; Defers Appointments

Shortly before leaving Los Angeles last night Gov. Richardson said he had reached no decision regarding the appointment of a chief justice of the State Supreme Court and will take no final action until after a conference with Chief Justice Myers in San Francisco today.

He also said he will make no announcement of his appointment of local municipal court judges until he returns to Los Angeles again, about a month hence.

While in this city on his present visit the Governor offered his services to Presiding Justice Frank Plymeyer of the Second District Court of Appeal, Division One, who declined. Since notified of the resignation of Chief Justice Myers, Gov. Richardson has offered the position to Charles D. Wilbur, Secretary of the Navy.

About a year ago the Governor offered an associate justiceship to Nathaniel P. Conroy, presiding justice of the Second District Court of Appeals. Justice Conroy had a conference late yesterday with the Governor, who, it is understood, did not offer Conroy the position in view of the fact that the judge on the former occasion stated he wished to remain in Los Angeles always.

In his evening discourse Dr. Walker will paint a picture of the Pacific of today and will contrast present conditions in that land with conditions prevailing in the East just prior to the advent of the world's greatest teacher. In order to address the audience discussion Sunday dancing at Venice, achievements of the World Court, and the pastor's best-loved woman.

There has been much progress during the past weeks, he read from his notes. "We know what has been done locally, but we know something about what other cities are doing; we know who are the experts, both technical and legal in the country. In addition, we know the problem before us and have an accurate knowledge of the necessary budget, and, with the co-operation indicated herein, a program to Los Angeles and surrounding communities can be accomplished."

As the meeting progressed, it developed that a fund of between $10,000 and $17,000 would be solicited or otherwise collected by the committee to fight the Southern California Telephone Company.

MESSAGE IGNORED

The City Council yesterday refused to listen to the reading of a 2,000-word message on the telephone-line situation submitted by Mayor Conroy. Clark Carruth started to read the special message Councilman Criswell joined in. Other Councilmen joined in, all moving that it be sent unread, to the City Attorney. The roll was called and the message was referred to the City Attorney and the committee of the whole, unread.

In his special message, the Mayor urged that the Council instruct the City Attorney to intervene and join with the city of Boston, Mass., in its complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington against the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, declaring that this company controls telephone companies in many States and is able to collect "unjust and unreasonable telephone rates."

The Mayor declared that Los Angeles is in the same situation as Boston, as he said, the Southern California Telephone Company is owned by the Pacific Telephone and the one over which he has in turn controlled through 75 per cent stock ownership by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The Mayor said that the method of relief for Los Angeles is to join with other cities in securing a complete investigation of the methods and business affairs of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

CELEBRATES LONG SERVICE

Dr. Walker to Preach on Los Angeles Advancement on Twenty-eighth Anniversary

ing-room, open daily to the public, at 615 Stock Exchange Building.

Christian Science

A lesson sermon on "God the Only Cause and Creator" will be read at 11 a.m. tomorrow at all churches of Christ, Scientist of Los Angeles. The service at 8 p.m. at First, Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Thirteenth and Seventeenth churches will be a repetition of the morning service. Wednesday evening meetings which include testimonies of Christian Science healings are held in all the churches. These church services are conducted by the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston.

TEMPLE BAPTIST

Dr. W. B. Riley, nationally known for his antivolution propaganda and his fight against modernism and modernism, Dr. Walker stands as a personal refutation of the statement that "the man who dares to think cannot be a Christian." No stronger supporters of modernism and evolution can be found in the ranks of the faithful, yet as a protagonist of untrammeled thought and scientific investigation Dr. Walker stands among the foremost clergymen of America.

As president of the Los Angeles Church Federation, Dr. Walker will paint a picture of the progress of his church in the cause of the Kingdom of God.

Combining in character and attitude that which is best and most progressive in both fundamentalism and modernism, Dr. Walker stands as a personal refutation of the statement that "the man who dares to think cannot be a Christian." No stronger supporters of modernism and evolution can be found in the ranks of the faithful, yet as a protagonist of untrammeled thought and scientific investigation Dr. Walker stands among the foremost clergymen of America.

At the morning hour Dr. Helms will preach on "Christ, the All Powerful."

BLUE LAWS

In a sermon on "Vanity, Blue Laws and Amusements" to be preached by Dr. Herbert Booth Smith at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, Dr. Smith will discuss the question, "What Kind of Fun?"

James A. Lovell, author of "The Welsh Male Chorus," will furnish a musical program. The topic for the morning sermon is "Where Was Eden?"

ARMENIANS INVITED

All Armenians of Los Angeles are invited to attend the Golden Rule Sunday mass meeting to be conducted by Dr. G. A. Briggle will preach on the subject, "Shall I Remain in the Ministry?"

In view of the fact that the future of the church will be critical, Dr. Briggle suggests that "saints and righteous people remain away from this service." At the morning hour Dr. Briggle will preach on "Everyman," a study of Christ's parables on the morning of the 13th inst.

CURE FOR CRIME

"The Only Cure for the Crime Wave is the Cure for Crime," will be preached by Dr. John A. Eby at the Wilshire Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening following the motion picture, "The Making of O'Malley." The subject for the morning service is "The Crisis of the Cross Roads."

OUR WORST ENEMY

Mrs. Leila Simon Castberg, pastor of the Church of the Divine Power, will preach at the Monte Carlo School tomorrow morning on "Fear—Our Worst Enemy."

Sunday school will be conducted at 9:45 a.m. at the church headquarters, 33 South Alvarado street, and Throop Memorial Universalist Church, South Los Robles avenue and Center street, Pasadena.

In many households a frugal meal, approximating the fare eaten at American Near East Relief, will be observed tomorrow at scores of Southern churches with special services to be held on the 28th.

Preparations for the day have been under way for several weeks under the leadership of young people's societies. The day will be observed in forty countries.

Fourteen orphan's meal, followed by appropriate speaking, will be served at the Figueroa Boulevard Christian Church, Fifteenth street and Figueroa street, the First Universalist Church, 1373 South Alvarado street, and Throop Memorial Universalist Church, South Los Robles avenue and Center street, Pasadena.

DR. FRANK DYER

"Reincarnation—is it sound? Is it scientific? Is it Christian?" These questions will be answered by Dr. Frank Dyer in his sermon tomorrow morning at the Wilshire Boulevard Congregational Church. The subject for evening is "The Attack of Rupert Hughes on the Religion of Jesus."

In the evening following Dr. Dyer will discuss the following questions: "What do you think of the Rhinelanders? Is there any place for them in the present generation? What do you think of the pact of Locarno? What did the people have before Christ's time to guide them between right and wrong?"

A THIRSTY GOD?

Dr. James Marion Miller, of the Bible Institute, will be the presbyter tomorrow at the Church of the Open Door, preaching in the morning on "Our Lord Girded for Service, and in the Evening on 'The Mystery God Seizing Death at the Wells of Earth.' Prof. J. B. Trowbridge will be in charge of the music. Next Tuesday evening the choir of the church will give a concert.

On Wednesday the station will be Raymond Hoyt, new acting superintendent. Hoyt left for Houston, Tex., in his work as field secretary of the Playground and Recreation Association of America.

HOW TO BE HAPPY?

Bob Shuler announced yesterday that the young people will present a pageant drama entitled "The Need of Central America."

CHRIRANANDA TO SPEAK

A free lecture on "Attainment Through Service" will be given by Swami Dhirananda at 3 p.m. tomorrow at the Mt. Washington Educational Center, San Rafael and Elmer streets. A Sunday school for children will be conducted at 2 p.m. Swami Dhirananda will give another free lecture on the sixth floor of the Walker Auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow when he will speak on "The Supermind of the Superconscious."

IMMORTALITY

Los Angeles Branch of the Christian Science Parish Church of the New Generation will conduct services at 11 a.m. tomorrow at 940 South Figueroa street. The subject of the lesson is "Immortality." This church is connected with the organization now known as the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

FIRST METHODIST

"Your Mother's Favorite Hymn and Yours" is the subject of a sermon to be preached at 10 a.m. tomorrow from the First Methodist Church. Singing of old hymns by the choir and congregation will feature the program. The church maintains a free read-

POPULAR LINE

"Prince of Wales's Bull Prize Winner" says a headline. He certainly does seem to have a most agreeable line of conversation.

FOOLISH MONEY

Now it is said that Kip Rhinelander
will be bankrupt when the trial of his an-

gets for being color blind.

DOWN IN THE MOUTH

Up in Stockton a bandit stoops his victim's false teeth. Possibly thought he was getting the family plate or else was unwilling to give his prey a chance to bite
back.

THE MIXING BUSINESS

ing especial pains to train students to be

IT ISN'T DONE

Secretary Wilbur declines with thanks
the tender of an offer of Chief Justiceship
of the Supreme Court of California. The Secretary feels that while a man is at bat
it is no time for him to be benched.

LADY BANDITS

Two lady bandits held up a bank in Renner, S. D., taking $500 from it. If the women take to holding up banks and people generally like they do their own bus-
bands and fathers this will be a country!

REVISED EDITION

In an English stage version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" the old uncle kills Simon Legree with an automatic and Topsy turns out to be a sassy dancer with wonderful legs. That is about the way some of the Hollywood directors would make a movie
of it.

VULGARITY PERSISTS

Some optimists believe the constant presence of women in barber shops will put an end to the risque jokes and stories
for which some such shops have been noted.
But where do they get their logic? Women have been constantly present in these shops for quite some time.

ON THE DEAD

Another batch of grave-diggers in Chicago are reported as having gone on a strike. They want at least $6 a day or else
the Chicagoans may go unburied. The situation may be considered as serious. When a Chicago man needs planting it is an emergency case and if the sextons fail to provide earthly caverns the community may become imperiled. There is a time for laughter, but this is not it. It is a grave matter.

THE BUSES OF TODAY

America learned about busses from England and now the English are taking to the up-to-date busses as made in America.
They are being improved every day and will yet be standardized along lines of luxury and utility. Their service is being extended in all lands. The country town is being brought to the city and the development of many high-class communities is being made simple through this attractive
form of transportation.

BY ARBITRATION

The suggestion of a Federal tribunal
for the arbitration or adjustment of industrial disputes is being revived and some action
may be asked during the present Congress. The strike is the most senseless weapon used in the working world. It hurts the hand that holds it and leaves scars in both camps. There is no just quarrel in the fields of industry that could not be eased or cancelled by independent arbitration. There should be machinery available for that purpose at all times.

QUESTION OF ETHICS

A delicate question arises: Is it proper
for a lady to give her bootlegger a check
on a bank in which her account is overdrawn? This query now comes up in the courts. The woman's check came back marked "no funds" and the lady says that the goods received were not worth the money, anyhow, and is not disposed to recognize the error. She intimates that the spirits she drew were not rectified, either.
Thus far the bootlegger appears to have the worst of it, but who is going to extend sympathy to a bootlegger?

SLOW MOTION

A foreign news correspondent who left Washington six years ago and is now returning to that field remarks that, as far as he is able to discern, the problems and questions that were uppermost and awaiting settlement when he went away are in about the same condition today. Agricultural relief, railway legislation, shipping problems,
waterway development, foreign relations
and national defense have been much talked
of, but the correspondent is unable to see that there has been any real accomplishment in any of these fields of adventure.

THE INTERNATIONAL OUTLAW
No other contract drawn within the memory of the present generation has met
with such universal approval as the Locarno
Security Pact. All the governments concerned have ratified without reservation;
and the German Reichstag has authorized
the government to make application for membership in the League of Nations. This was a very necessary procedure, for, under the terms of the pact, it does not become mandatory upon the signatory governments
until Germany is a member of the League.

The attempt of Ludendorff and the other German militarists who still cling to the old regime to defeat ratification served only
to disclose how weak the militarists are in the new German republic. President Von Hindenburg gave unreserved approval to
the pact, which he said was vital to reconstruction in Germany.

French editors find it difficult to be reti-
cent, to avoid displaying unseemly gratification over the very favorable terms of France. The growing wealth and population of the States that formed the old German Empire and now form the republic had been a cause of alarm to the French ever since 1870. The Franco-Prussian War
proved that France was too weak to resist successfully, without foreign support, a German invasion. The Triple Entente was only a "gentlemen's agreement," something that could be terminated by any of the three governments concerned at any time. But the pact of Locarno is a formal treaty. It will be necessary for France to make no
national sacrifices to keep in the good graces of Italy and England. Their support in case of attack is written in the bond.

For thirty years before the World War
France's position was far from enviable.
The reigning houses of Germany and England were closely related, and France had no assurance that a secret entente would not be effected between England and Germany,
one that would leave France at the mercy of her powerful neighbor on the Rhine.

France ceded Alsace and Lorraine to Germany to free the other French territory occupied by victorious German armies. Germany ceded them back under threat of Allied invasion. Treaties so signed are like contracts signed at the point of a revolver.
The one whose signature is forced repudiates it at the first opportunity.

But Germany of its own free will has agreed to recognize Alsace and Lorraine in perpetuity as integral parts of the French republic. And France is assured of the armed support of Italy and England if Germany seeks to break that pledge.

The German people are well contented with the terms of the Locarno Pact. They are content, all things considered, that Alsace and Lorraine shall not form a part of the German republic. They will probably apply to the League of Nations for a mandate over one or more of their former African colonies; but Alsace and Lorraine were almost as great troublemakers for Germany under the empire as Ireland was to Great Britain. There is no visible desire on the part of the Germans to engage in a new war for the sake of getting a bit of territory west of the Rhine.

Plainly the present generation in Germany has had enough of fighting. The Germans desire to turn their attention to industry, to recover the foreign markets
they lost through the war and to increase the national wealth. They are convinced that many of us hardly know what work
is or what may be comprehended by or involved in the term.

Of course, the practical mind never will be satisfied with the mere discovery of these rays. It will want to see them handled in the service of mankind—to turn
the wheels of industry, heat our habitations and heal the sick or disabled. But these things may not come for many years. For the present the mere discovery of these rays which primarily do not exist upon the earth but in circumambient space, previously explored only by the telescope and never before with the electroscope, is such a triumph of the human mind as to warrant
it being acclaimed among the capital events
of this century. Their power to pass through six feet of solid lead has suggested
the term "penetrating rays," while the fact that they are immigrants to the frontiers of our atmosphere has caused them to be called "incoming rays." But while either of these names probably would be more definitive than that of their discoverer, if applied to them, it would be far more appropriate and would evince a much greater appreciation of his great service to science
if they were given the name of the distinguished investigator who has made them
known to the world.

Through the demonization of the mark
Germany wiped out her internal national debt. The only drain on the treasury, outside the current expense of the government, is the repayment payments under the Dawes agreement, and those payments are not one-third what either England or the United States pays annually on the national debt.

Outside Bolshevik circles in Russia there is general rejoicing. It means much to countries that are not parties to the treaties, for the last war proved how world
trade and commerce are disturbed when
two first-class powers start fighting.

The public opinion of the world has outlawed war. It is no longer popular with any civilized people, both for moral reasons and for the material reason that it is not profitable. The age when a small army could invade foreign territory and bring back
homest quantities of treasure is definitely ended. There is not enough plunder to be secured anywhere to pay the cost of invasion. Peoples who have anything worth carrying away are too well prepared to defend themselves.

In the economy of civilization there is no more place for war. That which is un-moral, unnecessary, unpopular and unprofitable cannot long exist. It must give way to things that the world wants and the world needs. That is the present condition of war, which has not even the allurement of a vice; and that is why the peace of Locarno is so universally acceptable.

Public opinion, the unwritten law, has made war the international outlaw.

MILLIKAN RAYS
No name has as yet been definitely
applied to the new and powerful rays discovered by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, the Pasadena physicist, though the suggestion has been made that they be called the Millikan rays. When in 1895 Wilhelm Konrad Roentgen discovered what are now popularly known as the X-rays his name was for a time used in specifying them, but of late years one rarely hears the term "Roentgen rays." This is unfair to the discoverer, for if the words "watt," "ampero" and others of the terminology of science which so closely identify them with the men whose names they instantly suggest are fitting and
desirable, surely we should have Roentgen
and Millikan rays and they should be known
as such.

Speculation as to what use science may be able to make of Dr. Millikan's wonderful discovery is now rife among physicists
and others. So little is known of the character of the rays that the discoverer is not indulging in theorizing as to their practical application. He believes them to be of extraordinary absorptive power and that if they continue to increase in the upper region surrounding our earth they might work
disastrous results to life on this planet,
though such a contingency is remote and,
with other scientists, he hardly thinks this effect ever will be produced. But when one considers their tremendous power of penetration, due to a frequency 100 times as great as the Roentgen rays, it would seem that we have here to deal with a force that eventually may be applied in a way to work

them to the best advantage. The opposition
will know how to score the opposition
with acumen and finish. The opposition
will think a glacier has run over it. From the beginning of the first quarter in December till the whistle blows in the spring
there ought to be plenty of excitement in Washington.

He ought never to be off-side at least.
And he will be a living example for time
to come of the value of a college education.

Any sort of "interference" which Congress is especially noted for should be dealt with as soon as possible. The opposition
will know how to score the opposition
with acumen and finish.

DOING HIS BIT

The Prussian Finance Ministry has agreed to pay ex-Kaiser Wilhelm 30,000,000
marks in cash (about $7,150,000), award
him 180,000 acres of good land, give him
three palaces in Berlin and one in Babelsberg—all furnished—and throw in a few other bits of Berlin property to indemnify
him for what he lost when he gloriously skipped off to Holland. And he had asked for twice as much.

When it comes to shifting in different directions on various issues to meet the fickle public he ought to be an adept. He has kicked in opposite directions in every quarter for years.

Then consider his talent for blocking kicks. As a kicker himself he flourishes a mean boot. The only drawback we see is that most of the kickers are on the outside of Congress. It would almost seem that those names instantly suggest are fitting and
desirable, surely we should have Roentgen
and Millikan rays and they should be known
as such.

Judging from his drawing power, he ought to make Congress a little more popular. If he should venture anything in the Congressional Record we see a new circulation expansion coming.

He will know how to score the opposition
with acumen and finish. The opposition
will think a glacier has run over it. From
the beginning of the first quarter in Decem-
ber till the whistle blows in the spring
there ought to be plenty of excitement in Washington.

He ought never to be off-side at least.
And he will be a living example for time
to come of the value of a college education.

LETTERS TO The Times

"United States of Europe"

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial of November 23 dwells on the imperious necessity of Germany
for liquid capital, the sole place
for procuring such being the United States. In quoting thus from a French publication America is perched on its mountain tops, desirous of pacifying the world, says to France, "Desarm!" The French response, "Impossible!" The wicked Germans will do us harm."

Then America to Germany "Give
to France proof of your pacific intentions, otherwise there will be no more money in my house for you."
"That is the spirit of Locarno."
And again "Call it a capitalist system if you will. Was ever capital used for nobler purposes?"

Why cannot all, even the club
speakers and propagandists, see
this clearly and sense the Province
which has permitted this great
accumulation of wealth against this day?

"The United States of Europe,
which owes its existence to the United States of America! Thus have we, the sons and daughters
of European sires, repaid our debt
to the fatherlands. And this accomplishment is the result of the co-operation of the American government and the American dollar."

MRS. CHARLES GRAY.

"Those Evening Bells"

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your recent-day remaindered of the famous "Evening Bell" is now in the hands of the new Public Library. I have been wondering by
so many of our citizens who live or work
in the new Public Library have taken to drinking. Well, I know the "chimes" of the Bible Institute
are responsible. Twice a day
some musically inclined ice man
or cook tries his luck upon the hedges
of the bell-tower, mischievous for a while and leaves his unwilling audience
in a state of distress that may lead to any sort of sin or crime.

If the Bible Institute thinks that bell-bumping helps religion
then they are mistaken; it would drive
people away.

Well, doubles Jim and
the husband of Texas as he was enjoying being German.

Correct this sentence: "74," said he, "but I can't see that the winters were as cold as when I was a boy."

When a man leaves his home he has lost half as much
as he thinks

PUEBLO'S LAND THEME ON KHJ

Glady DeWitt Tells Lore of Ancient Race

Western Auto Supply Again Delights Hearers

Richard' Headrick Gives Children's Hour

By PAUL SHEEDY

The land of the Pueblo Indians, and particularly their town of Zuni, was one of the most historically interesting of those ancient inhabitants of the Painted Desert region, was the theme of last night's weekly romance from the tower studio of KHJ on the olden days of the Santa Fe Trail by Gladys DeWitt, telling of ancient treaties made with these aborigines by the earliest Spanish explorers at the time of Coronado.

These silver-headed ones form a romantic part of the past history of these people who have been more progressive in civilization and culture than the nomadic brothers of the Indians being a peaceful, intelligent race, who were never at war except to protect their homes from the marauding Navajos.

CANE FROM LINCOLN

Just recently an aged chieftain of the Zuni Indians, died in Valley, carrying one of these canes that had been inscribed with his name and presented him by President Lincoln, pledging his last words saved from the Indians by the following inscription:

An older elder cane is covered by these Pueblo—actually inscribed one given to me by my grandfather 10 years ago and saving the same promise of immunity from loss of their holdings.

The town of Zuni, as described by the Indian radio talk, is the remains of the famous city of Cibola, whose golden wealth led to the discovery of New Mexico in the sixteenth century.

It was built about the seventh century, and even yet have ruins of about 1800 individual buildings.

AUTO SUPPLY ON AIR

After the conclusion of the Santa Fe talk, the Western Auto Supply Company came on the air again on its radio station, with a wide variety of musical entertainment.

At 10 o'clock, featuring the "Milt Trio," composed of Milt Mathews, violinist; Milt Leah, pianist; Gladys Blackwell, soprano soloist; Keauhou Lewis, Hawaiian harpone; and Vernon, record artist; the Honolulu Hawaiian Trio, and Ponzi and Cayla, novelty entertainers.

During their series of broadcasts through country stations of their Western Auto Patrol, receiving sets in each of the supply companies, it was established in the course of the program that they had constructed thousands upon thousands of radio patrons, appearing on the air every Friday afternoon matinee and Sunday afternoon matinee, which were inaugurated a month ago, meeting with enthusiastic response.

CHILDREN'S HOUR

Last evening's children's hour featured "Richard" Headrick, Bettmanns Pfeffer-Fryer singer; Karl Hirschfeld, violin; Verna Von Schell, 14-year-old monologist, who was one of the big hits of the evening, when she was interviewed by Justice Scott yesterday following the testimony of several witnesses. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Kennedy prosecuted the case.

8 to 10 p.m.—Program sponsored by the White Auto Company, directors of Auburn clubs, according to Thomas B. Bridges, Oakland, governor of the second Rotary district, in which California is included.

Mr. Bridges made this address at the Rotarians luncheon at the Biltmore Club yesterday, when he was the principal speaker.

"Rotary has already spread to some of the European countries, and its influence in creating a better international understanding has been marked," said Mr. Bridges.

He also spoke of his trip to the Standard Mortgag Company, a director of the Los Angeles Steamship Company, which owns the ships Asa and Harvard in the coastwise service, and the City of Los Angeles, which were the Calawai in the Honolulu service.

Harry Lee Martin, director, and secretary of the Standard Company, is also vice-president of the Mortgag Guaranty Company, president of the District Bond Company, and vice-president and director of the Los Angeles Steamship Company, and Harry H. Conner, treasurer of the Standard Mortgag Company, is a director of the Los Angeles Steamship Company; the Mortgag Guaranty Company; president and director of the District Bond Company, director of the Union Rock Company, and director of the Bond Investment Company.

The government presence at the Rotarians luncheon was his first official visit with Los Angeles Rotarians since he was elected to head the second district last summer, and his job as governor.

"This being the sixtieth club in the district I have visited officials since I assumed the office. Inasmuch as there are some 118 clubs in this territory, I am probably a little more than half through."

The governor expressed his appreciation of the enthusiasm with which the local club is co-operating in supporting the cause of Rotary.

The Los Angeles club, which was the fifth to be organized, played an important part in the early history of the movement, and has always been characterized by the loyalty of its support," he declared.

Wife Protests When Remiss Husband Faces Jail

What Mrs. Helene K. Hackett wanted was a remittance, not revenge. So when Judge Gates ordered John W. Hackett to be sent over to the County Jail for four days to consider his offense against the Superior Court and the dignity thereof, she broke out in protest:

"Yes, but she wouldn't let me look at anyone else."

Milady, here's a big surprise!

You can do all your Christmas shopping at Young's beautiful new store at 1000 Broadway. It is conveniently parked at the door! Food!

The choicer of course, but also the loveliest; table and tree decorations.

Marrowbone pottery, glassware, silver, electrical things. Beautiful jars filled with dried fruit, preserved ginger, dresser sets, perfumes, fancy baskets of toilet goods, humidor tobacco jars, cigarette holders and dainty perfumed chinaware, cut crystal and candlesticks, stuffed oranges, pears and peaches in granadine. They are manufactured by Murdoch-Cadwell Co., 810 Santa Fe. Write them for the illustrated pamphlet and see what they are like.

Send California Sunshine in Cousin Mary's Flower Preserves and Marmalades! At best food stores or 2011 2d South Vermont. BEacon 6158.

Many pretty coat hangers may be made by milady's nimble fingers and a few of the real lavender flowers not only keep away moths, but impart a pleasing perfume.

Here's good news for you all! Remained Coffman's Virginia Pavilion Store is back in the market again. This famous brand was once known in the leading hotels and most exclusive clubs from New York to Los Angeles and you can buy it from the same place as before.

At Debow's Model Food Market, 325 West Tenth, (in Safeway Store on Tenth and Norton.)

To market! To market! To buy a fat pig.

Or groceries or turkey. Things little or big. You find them at Chaffee's. For the ham is pay at most of the places. You'd ram on the way.

"Peter Piper" is the brand to have if you want good relish, pickles or chutney.

The manufacturers of bicarbonate of soda claim that it is an absolutely harmless and wonderfully effective deodorant. It checks that relentless enemy of dainty women—body odor. It is safe to use.

A dainty gift is a set of hand-painted butterflies mounted on decorated clothespin bodies, to be used to catch the butterflies back.

Another set of clothespins, faintly decorated for the deck for holding groups of papers together.

POLICE AID ACTRESS IN PHONE CALL

Mary Miles Minter, in New York, asks facts on grandmother's illness.

Mary Miles Minter, former film star, now in New York, after repeated attempts to communicate with the family residence here yesterday, was at length enabled through the services of a police officer to converse with a physician in attendance upon her grandmother, who is reported in a critical condition.

Jane Charlotte Shelby, mother of Miss Minter, refused to talk to her daughter, according to the police report.

The former actress called Assistant Chief Murray by letter, asking him to send a police officer to re-enter the residence at 791 South New Hampshire street, where her mother now lives, and that no one would talk to her. She complained, according to Miss Minter, that the soon voice was heard the person at the Los Angeles end of the line hung up.

Miss Minter told Murray she feared that something was wrong with her mother, and requested officers be sent to investigate.

Capt. Kallmeyer of the Wilshire station detailed Police Officer Sketchley.

Sketchley reported that Mrs. Sherry, who is now involved in a court action with her daughter over finances, told him that she had refused to answer the telephone because she knew it was her daughter calling from New York and she did not want to talk to her.

The officer said he induced a physician who was at the house to answer the telephone and talk to Miss Minter. The physician was at the residence upon Miss Minter's grandmother, who is said to be critically ill.

It was presumably on account of this illness that the auction of furnishings of the forty-room residence, known as the Casa de Marguerita, was postponed yesterday.

"HIGH TOWER" PAINT MAKE-UP OF BANDITS

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Four gunmen who had smeared their faces with a "high yellow" make-up paint robbed the Roselle State Bank at Roselle, Ill., twenty-five miles northwest of Chicago, today. They were armed with shotguns.

It was the great difference in height and low tide there to the problem of how to harness the ocean to the power of its tides.

Miss Lee's Tomb Unveiled

A number of persons have been unable to visit the grave of Miss Lee on the Isle of Oleron.

They are disappointed that members of the family have not facilitated access to the resting place of the noted actress.

Miss Lee's former secretary, in reply to inquiries, announced that Miss Lee's tomb will be opened to the public shortly.

The family is represented by Figaro Figaro.

Two wives may constitute bigamy, but three, if married under the proper circumstances, make for legality. Francis P. Brigham declared in Justice Baird's court yesterday.

Confronted by two asserted wives, Brigham claimed still another, now dead. He had married the second while his first was still living, he said. Therefore his second marriage was illegal. The first wife had died before he married the third. Therefore only his third marriage is legal.

Brigham's surprise defense left everyone more or less confused. His first marriage has not yet been proved. If it should be, there is said to be a possibility that the charge against him would concern only Wife No. 1, who is now dead, and No. 2, instead of the two living.

Betty Brigham, 337 South Fremont street, and Marie Cook Brigham, 537 Witmer street, appeared as witnesses. Mrs. Betty Brigham said she had married Brigham at Duran in 1913. Mrs. Marie Cook Brigham said she had married him at Maryville in 1922.

Each, it was said thought she was the one and only wife. It was testified that one wife lived in San Francisco and the other in the older or more modern, but is more used to the newer parts of town. Where the number of wives in one is every four

FARM VALUES SHOW GAINS

Ninety-Three Fewer Plots in Los Angeles County But Appraisal Mounts $14,000,000 for Five Years

Los Angeles county has ninety-three fewer farms than five years ago, with a decrease of approximately $75,000 acres in the area devoted to agriculture, notwithstanding an increase exceeding $14,000,000 in farm values as compared to the figures of five years ago, according to the 1925 farm census and accompanying data compiled by the United States Department of Commerce.

A preliminary report just issued gives the number of farms in the county at 12,381, or ninety-three fewer than were reported in 1920. There are 1,079 more farm owners, 111 more farm managers and 1,258 fewer tenants operating farms, the number owning farms having increased to 9,657.

Farm acreage decreased by 74,400, and the number sheep and livestock increased, decreasing in numbers, excepting for the total of cattle and dairy cows, the former adding 341 to the figure of five years ago, while there are 12,125 dairy cattle, other than cows, 2,000 swine, 21,000, and breeding 4,000.

VALUES INCREASE

The increase in farm values to date $14,208,221, of which land value is covered by $14,208,211 and buildings $4,816,010.

Substantial increases are recorded in the number of pear trees and grape vines over the period of five years, with 11,156,772 more grape vines of all ages this year than in 1920, 114,440 more pear trees of all ages.

Hay, white potato and sugar-beet acreage decreased, but the number of bearing orange and lemon trees shows a gain. There are fewer young orange and lemon trees.

VENTURA FIGURES

In a similar comparative report for Ventura county, an increase by 104 in the number of farms in the county is shown, with the total 1925. There are 153 more farm owners and nine or fewer tenants operating them. The farm acreage has increased by 73,905 during the five-year period. Farm values increased $34,491,588, of which $11,479,281 was owned by individuals, $11,000,000 being new acreage.

A survey of live stock on farms in the county shows slight increases in the numbers of mules, cattle, beef and dairy cattle, with decreases in the numbers of horses, swine and breeding sows.

The principal crops, orange trees of a bearing age in 1925 numbered 88,270 more and young 10,000 more than in 1915, while there were 11,117 young lemon trees and 88,995 more lemon trees of a bearing age.

Large decreases are noted in the production of both barley and sugar beets with the acreage in hay showing a decline.

HOSPITAL CASE DELAY GRANTED

Injunction Demanded in Row Over Osteopathy

Reservations in Riverside Obtained on Writ

Hearing Set Forward to the 22nd Inst.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 4.—Hearing on the preliminary injunction brought against Riverside Community Hospital board of directors by Edna and Lester Carnahan, which had been set for Monday, the 7th inst., has been continued by stipulation to the 22nd inst. at 10 a.m. Counsel appeared today before Judge Freeman and asked continuance of the hearing. The court ordered that the plaintiffs shall serve and file their points and affidavits on or before the 15th inst.

Quite a number of the individuals which her husband had chosen, Miss Patricia Helen Carnahan arrived at the Riverside Community Hospital at 7:55 a.m. yesterday, anticipating by several days the time set for the hearing. The two day's daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carnahan, is a healthy, normal child of nearly eight pounds, according to the reports of medical authorities and Dr. A. Gosselin, surgeon to Carnahan's physician. Both the mother and child are receiving every care at the hospital.

The Carnahans demand a temporary injunction against the hospital for protection for Mrs. Carnahan in the maternity wing of the hospital after it had been refused, they charge, because the prospective mother was attended by an osteopathic physician. They seek a permanent injunction making the Riverside Community Hospital on "open" institution.

Bandits Hold Up Man on Way to Dying Mother

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

FRESNO, Dec. 4.—While scores of persons stood or passed within a few feet of them shortly before noon today, two Mexican highwaymen held up and robbed Prudencia Corcoran, railroad section foreman, of $540, and then escaped in an automobile which they had left on the curb with the motor running.

Corcoran was in Fresno en route to Mexico to see his mother, who had not been advised, was near death. He had removed the residue of his clothing effects, purchased clothing and a railroad ticket to El Paso, and he was wanting about the business district to get a train before the departure of his train.

The hold-up occurred but three blocks from the center of Fresno's business district and at one of the busiest downtown corners. Due to the fact that both men were masked, Corcoran obtained an excellent description of them, but despite the hurried spreading of a police net they escaped.

PANTS' PATTERN TRAPS SUSPECTED BURGLAR

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

SANTA ANA, Dec. 4.—Within two hours after Murray Vandermast, 2215 W. Washington avenue, had reported last night that his home had been robbed, Officer James W. Murray arrested Earl Carroll, 24 years of age, near the Santa Fe Railroad tracks, charged him with the burglary and released him on the condition that Carroll, a California State Prisoner, go to the County Jail. Carroll, however, came about through a pair of trousers. Vandermast reported the police that a pair of dark trousers with a white stripe was among the articles of clothing stolen from his home, and when Murray saw Carroll wearing a pair that resembled those stolen he immediately arrested the man. At the County Jail Vandermast is said to have identified the pants as his own.

TESTS TRUCK FRANCHISES

Hearing on Application for State Permits to Vitably Affect Orange County Concerns

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

ANAHEIM, Dec. 4.—All transfer and trucking companies in Orange county whose business takes them outside the corporate limits of the city in which they have their headquarters, and which are at present operating solely under city licenses granted by their respective communities, are to be vitally affected, it is declared, by the outcome of an application for a state franchise filed by the Anaheim Truck and Transfer Company, which is to receive a public hearing in the Court-Monday.

If the Anaheim Truck and Transfer Company, as one of the oldest established trucking concerns in the county, is denied the franchise, a precedent will be established which, it is said, will mean the forcing out of business of many such enterprises at present operating in this section.

The hearing Monday is the first in this section under a ruling handed down by the Supreme Court in January, whereby the State law requiring all trucking concerns to be incorporated in the state on definite schedules to obtain state franchises under the

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 4.—Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars in cash has been paid by the Monolith Portland Cement Company in the outright purchase of the Monolith cement plant site, east of Tehachapi, from the City of Los Angeles, according to a grant deed filed in Kern county Hall of Records today.

County Parole System Admits Trio to Liberty

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

HANFORD, Dec. 4.—The parole system, favored by the Superior Judge, Sheriff and District Attorney, and which has been in operation in Kings county for several years with most beneficial results, according to the statement of Dist.-Atty. McKay, was in evidence again yesterday when the County Parole Board, composed of Dr. H. H. Hines, Dist.-Atty.; Dr. C. M. Kenney, secretary of the Santa Monica-Ocean Park Chamber of Commerce, and a strenuous campaign was entered into by backers of the Monolith company to obtain full time parole enterprises. This fall vast tracts of cement land were obtained under a lease which is felt to be at the threshold of Santa Monica and to remain in this city the Douglas company, one of the foremost airplane factories in the country, which has indicated that it will move to the wealthy lands east of Tehachapi at the mouth of the gorge leading to Mojave Desert.

RIO, Dec. 4.—The Charles Franklin, capitalist, that came from the divorce court is again on the rostrum.

Advertisement bearing his name and stamp no longer "represents indebtedness" of half of Earl Franklin, situated in an Ontario home.

Neither the capsule active wife, Mrs. Rose, have issued a statement.

MR. MONROE'S DOCTRINE

On regarding the other and less favored nations to the United States, he declared, the Monroe Doctrine has outlined its usefulness.

It is now but a source of irritation to the sentimentalists.

Franklin, known as the "Duke of Moneymouth," has outlined his plan for the development of their country.

They offer a tempting incentive to imperialist nations over there and they can easily become members of the Americas union.

United States, however,

have issued a statement.

The Duke of Moneymouth

and Mr. Franklin, who are members of the same
